

News Release

USDA Forest Service
Cibola National Forest and Grasslands
Mt. Taylor Ranger District
1800 Lobo Canyon Rd. ■ Grants, NM 87020

For Immediate Release

Contacts:

Matt Reidy, District Ranger; e-mail: mreidy@fs.fed.us
Jeanne Dawson, Forester; e-mail: jedawson@fs.fed.us
Phone: 505.287.8833

Mt. Taylor Ranger District's Personal Use Firewood Season Opens

Grants, NM – July 22, 2013. The 2013 firewood cutting season has opened on the Mt. Taylor Ranger District of the Cibola National Forest. The season will run through December, 15, 2013, weather permitting.

The cost for a personal use permit will be $10 per cord (two-cord minimum) for any dead/down and dead standing wood, except for oak. The cost to collect dead and down oak is $20 per cord. There is an 8-cord limit per household per year for all types of wood.

Permits can be purchased at the following locations:

- Mt. Taylor Ranger District Office
1800 Lobo Canyon Road; Grants, New Mexico; Phone: 505.287.8833
Hours: Weekdays from 8:00 a.m. to noon; and 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- Fort Wingate Administrative Site
Ft. Wingate, New Mexico; Phone: call Mt. Taylor RD at 505.287.8833
Hours: Tuesdays from 5:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and Saturdays from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
- Northwest New Mexico Visitors Center
1900 E. Santa Fe Ave.; Grants, New Mexico; Phone: 505.876.2783
Hours: Saturdays & Sundays from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Please call ahead to ensure someone is available. Phone: 505.876.2783
- Cibola National Forest and Grasslands Supervisor's Office
2113 Osuna Rd. NE; Albuquerque, New Mexico; Phone: 505.346.3900
Hours: Weekdays from 8:00 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

Visitors are also reminded that motor vehicle use is permitted only on routes designated for motorized travel. Please contact the Mt. Taylor Ranger District at 505.287.8833 for additional information.